Amanda Goodger-Hill appointed as Stone Circle Tenant Board Member to strengthen customer voice.

Stone Circle Housing Company is proud to announce the appointment of Amanda Goodger-Hill as our Customer Non-Executive Director. Amanda has been a Customer of Stone Circle since 2021 and brings direct experience of working in social housing and a passionate commitment to community empowerment to the organisation's governing board.

The appointment is part of Stone Circle's ongoing commitment to ensuring customers are at the heart of key decision-making, particularly as the sector navigates a complex operating environment and focuses on decent homes, building and strengthening communities and quality services.

Amanda was selected following an open and competitive recruitment process, demonstrating a deep understanding of customer priorities and a willingness to represent the views of our communities.

Amanda said "I am thrilled to join the board. As a Stone Circle customer, I understand the everyday realities and challenges our customers experience. I look forward to bringing this lived experience to the board meetings to ensure that our decisions directly improve the quality of life for our customers and those who need housing. Also, with experience of working for a housing association in Bath, I hope to support Stone Circle Housing to continue to provide high-quality, sustainable homes for local people".

Peter Dean Chair of Stone Circle added: "We are delighted to welcome Amanda to our board. Having a strong customer voice on the Board is vital for us to remain a community-focused organisation. Amanda's insights will be invaluable in shaping our strategic direction and reinforcing our accountability to those who live in our homes."
