

PRESS RELEASE

Hayley Stockham appointed as Director of Stone Circle Group

Stone Circle Group is delighted to announce the appointment of Hayley Stockham as its new Director. Hayley is reporting directly to the Board and will lead the organisation into significant growth and development.

Hayley joins Stone Circle with over 30 years of experience in the social housing sector, most recently serving as Director of Neighbourhood Services at Rochdale Boroughwide Housing, and prior to that having spent 22 years at Curo in Bath.

Hayley will be responsible for leading the strategic direction of Stone Circle Group, consolidating the business, focusing on delivering, high-quality, sustainable homes for local people, and improving services for our customers.

"I am delighted to join Stone Circle at such an exciting time for the organisation and the sector," said Hayley. "My focus will be on strengthening relationships with our customers, increasing our portfolio of sustainable homes, and ensuring we continue to support those in housing need across Wiltshire".

Peter Dean, Chair of the Stone Circle Group, added: "We are thrilled to welcome Hayley to the team and back to her home County of Wiltshire. Her proven leadership, passion for social housing, and commitment to customer experience make her the ideal person to guide Stone Circle Group into its next chapter".

Hayley's appointment comes as Stone Circle continues its commitment to deliver more affordable homes across Wiltshire, improve its services to customers, help house key workers and work in partnership with Wiltshire Council. Hayley will be working across Stone Circle's Housing, Holding and Development companies.
